

Safety Database Solution – more than a software...

With the evolving trend of technology in drug safety and with invent of intelligent automation and machine learning we at Think I would like to proudly present its Partnership with AB Cube.

A company which provides cloud based software solutions for vigilance which are not only cost effective and user friendly but also fully validated for quick, easy import, entry and electronic submissions of adverse event in Human Drugs, Medical Devices, Cosmetics, Nutraceuticals and veterinary products.

Key features include:

- Unlimited number of users with one time implementation cost.
- Safety solutions are FDA 21CFR part 11, E2B (R3), HL7 complaint and Validated according to GAMP 5 (Good automated manufacturing practices), full validation dossier provided.
- Generation of PBRER and Signal Detection.

Apart from these recherché features :

AB Cube also provides training on their software solutions through e learning, virtual and Face to Face and also facilities extensive support 24/7 through service ticket or phone with response time less than 2 hours to its valued customers.

So what are you waiting for! Get complaint, get AB Cube

AB Cube ... more than a software

Brought to you by Think-I - an organization providing technological solutions and result oriented quality services in Pharmacovigilance, Clinical Trials, Medical Writing, Drug Regulatory Affairs and Human Resources.

For more details, refer to product brochure or contact +91 9560102587 or +91 9810068241

Email : bd@thinki.in; www.thinki.in